The 43rd annual edition of the London Marathon takes place on Sunday 23 April 2023 and will require road closures and parking restrictions in your area.

Tens of thousands of participants will take on the 26.2-mile course, which starts in Greenwich, crosses Tower Bridge and travels through the Isle of Dogs before finishing on The Mall in Westminster.

This leaflet provides specific access details for Isle of Dogs residents.

You'll find further information, including a list of Vehicle Crossing Points to help drivers cross the route safely, at tcslondonmarathon.com/road-closures

Restricted access

So the 2023 TCS London Marathon can go ahead safely, vehicle access to and from the Isle of Dogs will be restricted from 09:00 to 16:00 on Sunday 23 April.

To enter

If you need to drive into the Isle of Dogs between 08:00 and 19:00 on Sunday 23 April, please use the A13 East India Dock Road, Leamouth Road to Leamouth Roundabout, and take Blackwall Way to access Prestons Road.

Please note: the existing bus-only section of Blackwall Way will be suspended from 08:00 to 19:00 on Sunday 23 April to allow access to the Isle of Dogs.

To exit

If you need to drive out of the Isle of Dogs between 09:00 and 16:30 on Sunday 23 April please use Prestons Road and Cotton Street Roundabout to access Aspen Way eastbound towards Canning Town.

Parking restrictions

Any vehicles parked on the route will be removed from 06:00 on Sunday 23 April. Please assist us by moving your vehicle off the route on the evening of Saturday 22 April. If your vehicle is relocated by event contractors, please visit trace.london to find it.
